Empathy Map

Create an empathy map to understand your customer/user from four perspectives - what they Say, Think, Do, and Feel - in relation to the problem your project addresses. This helps the team build a customer-centric solution.

SAYS	THINKS
"I feel stressed before exams and assignments." "Sometimes I don't know where to begin studying." "I wish someone could guide me based on how I'm feeling."	"Will I score well in my exams?" "I am afraid of failing difficult subjects." "Maybe I am not studying effectively." "I need a better learning strategy."

"I lose motivation when I perform poorly."
